Five-A-Side Soccer

The Special Olympics Canada (SOC) Official Sport Rules shall govern all SOC Soccer competitions. As a national sport program, SOC has created these rules based upon Federation Internationale De Football Association (FIFA) and the Canadian Soccer Association (CSA) rules for soccer. FIFA or CSA rules shall be employed except when they are in conflict with the SOC Official Sports Rules. In such cases, the following sections outlining the SOC Official Five-A-Side Soccer Rules shall apply.

SECTION A

Official Events

1. Five-A-Side Soccer Team Competition (using 11-A-Side Soccer rules with modifications).

SECTION B

Rules of Competition

1. A classification (seeding) round shall be conducted to place teams in a division.
2. In the classification (seeding) round, teams will play one or more games. Each team will be required to play all players whose names appear on *the final team roster.
3. A *final team roster consists of a minimum of eight (8) players and a maximum of ten (10) players. No fewer than four (4) players and not more than five (5) players one of whom shall be the goal keeper, shall be on the field at one time. All players listed on the *final team roster must have an opportunity to play during each match of the tournament.

 NOTE: A final team roster is a complete list of all players registered with a team.

4. Unlimited substitution (e.g. players may return to field after being substituted). Substitution can be made anytime the ball is out-of-bounds, between halves, after a goal is scored or during a time out for injury.

(Amendment to FIFA Rules: Law III – Number of Players)

5. The duration of the game shall be two equal periods of 25 minutes (maximum 25 minutes – minimum 15 minutes).

(Amendment to FIFA Rules: Law VII – Duration of the Game)

6. For the purpose of tournaments, preliminary round games may end in a tie. In case of a tie in the medal rounds, two (2) five (5) minute overtime periods will be played (This is not sudden death). If the game is still tied after overtime penalty kicks will determine the winner.

(Amendment to FIFA Rules: Law VII – Duration of the Game)

7. There is no off-side.

(Amendment to FIFA Rules: Law XI – Off-Side)

8. When a player is taking a direct or indirect free-kick inside his own penalty area, all opposing players shall be at least five (5) metres from the ball and shall remain outside the penalty area until the ball has been kicked out of the area. The ball shall be in play when it has travelled the distance of its own circumference and is beyond the penalty-area. The goal-keeper shall not receive the ball into his hands, in order that he may thereafter kick it into play. If the ball is not kicked direct into play, beyond the penalty-area, the kick shall be retaken.

When a player is taking a direct or indirect free-kick outside his own penalty-area, all opposing players shall be at least five (5) metres from the ball, until it is in play, unless they are standing on their own goal line, between the goal-posts. The ball shall be in play when it has travelled the distance of its own circumference.

If a player of the opposing side encroaches into the penalty-area, or within five (5) metres of the ball, as the case may be, before a free-kick is taken, the referee shall delay the taking of the kick, until the Law is complied with.

(Amendment to FIFA Rules: Law XIII – Free-Kick)

9. A penalty-kick shall be taken from the penalty-kick mark and, when it is being taken, all players with the exception of the player taking the kick, properly identified, and the opposing goalkeeper, shall be within the field of play but outside the penalty-area, at least five (5) metres from the penalty mark and must stand behind the penalty mark.

(Amendment to FIFA Rules: Law XIV – Penalty-Kick)

10. When the whole of the ball passes over the goal-line, excluding the portion between the goal-posts, either in the air or on the ground, having last been played by one of the defending team, a member of the attacking team shall take the corner-kick, i.e. the whole of the ball shall be placed within the quarter circle at the nearest corner-flag post, which must not be moved, and it shall be kicked from that position. A goal may be scored direct from such a kick. Players of the team opposing that of the player taking the corner-kick shall not approach within five (5) metres of the ball until it is in play (i.e. it has travelled the distance of its own circumference, nor shall the kicker of the ball a second time until it has been touched or played by another player).

(Amendment to FIFA Rules: Law XVIII – Corner Kick)

SECTION C
